

CALL FOR CONFERENCE SESSIONS

APA-IN FALL CONFERENCE | HOLIDAY INN – CITY CENTRE

LAFAYETTE, IN

OCTOBER 18-20, 2017

APA IN is pleased to announce a call for conference sessions for the 2017 Fall Conference on October 18-20, 2017, in Lafayette.

We anticipate selecting at least 10 conference sessions. Regular conference sessions will be 1.0 hours. Law and Ethics sessions will be 1.4 hours. Session focus areas include:

- Citizen Participation
- Infrastructure
- Small Towns
- Climate
- Law
- Smart Growth
- Comprehensive Planning
- Mixed-Use
- Social Equity
- Demographics
- Neighborhoods
- Streets
- Density
- New Urbanism
- Transportation
- Economic Development
- Parking
- Urban Design
- Environment
- Parks and Open Space
- Zoning
- Green Communities
- Property
- Hazards
- Revitalization
- History
- Signs
- Housing
- Site Plans

Sessions will be judged, in part, on the following:

1. Sessions should include at least 2 speakers. If a session is about a single project, please include speakers from multiple perspectives. For example, a session about a unique comprehensive planning project could include the consultant and a planner or plan commission member from the county/township/city/town.
2. Sessions should be unbiased and non-promotional in nature.
3. With the exception of those designed for citizen planners, sessions should meet the requirements for CM credit and must be designed to teach subject matter in appropriate depth and scope for the level of the typical AICP member (i.e., a planner in current practice with at least four years of professional experience after earning a 2-year master's degree).

Session proposals are due July 14 at 5 pm EDT. Please complete the attached form and send electronically the APA-IN offices in care of Jill Ewing ((317) 396-0002 EXT 2or jillewing@indianapanning.org).
